

Youth Work's Role in the Prevention of Youth Radicalization

Gahrstedt , Osterholz-Scharmbeck, 14-23 November 2018

Project-No.: KA105-2E882FE0

DESCRIPTION OF THE PROJECT

The last years have brought a topic on the public agenda, which is of re-newed concern for youth workers all over Europe. The radicalization of young people is (again) on the rise throughout the spectrum - left, right or religious. Youth work plays an important role, as the radicalization of many young people could be successfully prevented, if youth worker could better differentiate motivations and mechanisms in the process of extremism. Youth workers need to know the different steps, recognize the codes and identify the phases of youth radicalization while happening in order to successfully prevent and protect.

Some of the problems actually arise from not knowing the issues deeply. Therefore we want to explore the mechanisms and the foundations of two forms of radicalization. Right wing extremism as well as Islamism. With this project we also want to give a valuable input on the current problems in many European countries when it comes to the successful integration of refugees as well as the further integration of second or third generation migrants. The project will directly bring the issues of migrants on the agenda, as these are the issues we will face when talking about right wing extremism and Islamism in a European perspective. We will equip the participants with competences that will help in the social dialogue that they need to get involved in when doing youth work.

This project will support the cooperation between the partners on the chosen topics. This should help the participants, which will be youth workers, group leaders and other people working with youth to get a set of competences to prevent the radicalization of young people in their closest environment. As this is a training course the participants will acquire different new knowledge, skills and attitudes. The activities are based on building up on the previous knowledge and the interests of the participants present. The participants will broaden their knowledge about terrorism, roots and foundations for extremism, get to know different prevention attempts by youth work in Germany and also work on their own skill set to become a preventer in youth work. The participants will also learn more about the topic in the context of their own country as they have to prepare different information beforehand and present and discuss it during the training. They will get a more complex view on the topics, a deeper understanding of why young people are drawn to extreme groups but also get to know how they can help prevent it.

THE VENUE

In Garlstedt (Osterholz-Scharmbeck) and in Bremen.

We are going to stay in the KulturHaus, Hinterm Horn 5, in Garlstedt in the municipality of Osterholz-Scharmbeck, in the Bundesland (federal state unit) Niedersachsen, Germany. It is a simple but beautiful accommodation, something like a youth hostel in the country side.

- The venue where we are accommodated is in the middle of small village some 30 kilometers outside of Bremen.
- The rooms are going to be 2-5 beds per room. We will mix the nationalities, not the genders.
- We will be the only group in the house. We will make the rules together, and will respect the rules that we make.
- There are showers in 7 of the rooms, the rest have them and also bathrooms outside of the rooms. We will give the females a preference for these seven rooms.

We have our own cooking and logistics team so they would prepare meals for us and specific food will be done for the people with food preferences like vegans, vegetarians, no pork, halal, raw food, non-gluten and so on.

What do you need in concern to the venue?

- Shoes for inside. As it is really large house, which needs to be kept clean, everyone would need an extra pair of shoes for inside the house (slippers or clean shoes, which you will not wear outside).

- Bring your own towel. Same goes for hair driers, shampoo, and so on. There will be bed sheets provided. If you forgot things we can buy it for you on demand in nearby stores or you purchase it during stays in Bremen.

HEALTH ISSUES

We would have a first aid kit with us. But, please, make sure that you take any medication that you need. There are pharmacies in Bremen and Osterholz-Scharmbeck, but they will ask for prescriptions of your doctors. There will be list of emergency doctors' offices available for consultation when needed. There is a fullfledged hospital in Osterholz nearby (8 km).

You have to have health and accident insurance card covers for Germany. You get this from your own insurance at home, when you are from the European Union or covered by an inter-state agreement or you can buy it before you leave in your country. If you forget it, you are able to book it online. The product is called "incoming insurance" and you get one for instance but not only here.

Please make an internet search, which one is most convenient for your purposes

ATM&CASH

In Germany all major credit and debit cards are accepted. However, Osterholz-Scharmbeck is really a small place and in the village, where we stay there is no ATM. In the venue no cards are accepted, so make sure that you have some cash with you when you need something from the shop or some drinks to order with our logistics team. You can find ATMs in Bremen as well as many banks. German banks are not used to a lot of money exchange, so exchange rates in your country could be better. Check it out.

TRAVEL INSTRUCTION TO BREMEN

There are several airports near Bremen – Bremen itself, Hamburg, Hannover and more south Cologne, Düsseldorf and Dortmund. But also flights to Amsterdam are possible, Frankfurt/Main and even Berlin can make sense due to cheap connections. Detailed orientation you find with rome2rio.com.

When you reach any of these towns or airports your destination number one is BREMEN.

To reach it you can use cheap bus travel. Use flixbus.de or others you find at goeuro.com.

As we want you to chose the most ecological of all transportation means, we will spend some lines her on opportunities to travel Germany with trains. There are special offers for tickets with the German Railways (bahn.de, or use trainline.com, when you do not want to register with them). When arriving in Hannover or Hamburg, there is a group ticket called Niedersachsen ticket for this region, which includes Bremen and Osterholz-Scharmbeck. If you use this the basic fare is 22€ for one traveller, 26€ for 2 travellers, 30€ for 3 travellers, 34€ for 4 travellers and 38€ for 5 people travelling between Hannover, Hamburg or Bremen. But there is also the simple group ticket with the German Railways, which you can use when you are 6 or more persons, which lasts from 9 am til 3 am next day and you can basically travel the whole Germany for about 20 Euros p.P.

And one more: If you stick to the trains which are not defined as IC (intercity) or ICE (intercity express) there is also special “Quer-durchs-Land”, which gets ever cheaper the more partners you are. For one person it is still 44 Euros, for 5 person only 78 Euros.

You find all those tariffs on this webpage https://www.bahn.com/en/view/offers/index.shtml?dbkanal_007=L04_S02_D002_KIN0059_TOP-NAVI-ANGEBOTE_LZ01.

MAKING IT TO THE VENUE

You can reach Bremen by plane, then you take the tram from the Bremen International Airport – right in front of the arrival hall – to Bremen Hauptbahnhof (main station). Or you arrive by bus with one of the different lines. Then you just walk over to Hauptbahnhof. Or you followed our advice to take the train. So all of you are now at the Central Train Station.

From Bremen you can take a train or bus to Osterholz-Scharmbeck. There is a direct Bus from Bremen Central Bus Station right in front of the Train Station. It has the number 660 in direction “Hagen”. It leaves once per two hours and drives about 40 minutes. The first bus is workdays at 6:45 AM and the last leaves from the Bremen Main Station at 7 pm. After that there is only the train, which leaves every hour or two until early morning. Look for this further down.

If you on the bus, you get out at the bus station OHZ Garlstedt Logistikschule der Bundeswehr (Logistics School of the German Army). From there you go through a small forest lane and then over an asphalted road along the fields to the Street called Hinterm Horn 5. This walk is about 750 meters long.

In case you arrive later than 7pm in Bremen you should go by train from Bremen to Osterholz- Scharmbeck station. Nevertheless, the venue is still 8-10 km, that is about 2 hours walk. Do not even try, you will get lost. Therefore you should announce and agree your arrival with us.
