EVS-SPORT for SOCIAL SUPPORT 2

- According to Turkish Statistical Institute Antalya has the fifth biggest population in Turkey. And Antalya's population is rising in time because of the agriculture and tourism sectors, it is a migration receiving city. According to Antalya Chamber of Industry and Commerce, although the unemployment rate is decreasing: now around %20 , the unemployment rate in graduate among the youngsters are getting bigger and bigger : now around %24. This shows youth unemployment rate in Antalya is a problem. The aim of Lidosk is to promote Erasmus + Program to these people to reintroduce these young and socially and economically disadvantaged people to society and to increase the employability rates in the future.
 - For this reason, we want to work with 4 long term volunteers between 18-30 years old in our center. They will work 6 months in Antalya city center starting from April 2019. They will participate social responsibility projects and civil society initiatives of our association such as sports, elderly people, environmental projects and also they will promote especially volunteering programme of Erasmus + , so our youngsters will have more information and their awareness about Erasmus+ will increase.
 - We want to work with 10 short term volunteers in Antalya-Olimpos for the protection of Caretta caretta's nest. They will work 2 months between 20th of June 2019 to 17th of the August 2019.

VENUE

- The westerly region of Turkey's Mediterranean coastline is especially popular and sandy beaches around Antalya and the Konyaalti Bay are in abundance. With a particularly diverse landscape, it is actually quite feasible to enjoy a morning swim, and then head to the Taurus Mountains for a spot of skiing in the afternoon at the neighbouring resort of Davras.
- Antalya's historical Old Town area known as the Kaleici offers beautiful harbour views and is surrounded by medieval fortified walls, which date back before both the Roman and Byzantine periods and have been restored many times. Currently the fastest-growing city in Turkey, Antalya enjoys an idyllic climate for a good deal of the year and much tourism. In the city centre, Taksim Square leads to the elegant street of Cumhuriyet Caddesi, where the tourist information office is located, along with plenty of hotels and shops, while the Republic Squares gardens are close by.
