Erasmus+

Brno.
For you.

Short intro

The main aim of this contact making seminar is to connect representatives of NGOs and youth workers who have experience with organizing and implementing Erasmus+ projects and/or working with NEETs and disadvantaged youth with the aim of future development of international collaboration.

Sub-objectives of the project are:

- Exchange of good practice in the field of work with disadvantaged youth and project management
- Sharing opportunities for non-governmental organizations which deal with the topic of inclusion
- Learning from each other good practices in promoting both Erasmus+ and non-formal education when trying to involve NEETs and disadvantaged youth in Erasmus+ projects
- Increasing competencies of youth workers through mutual support and inspiration

Where?

MORAVEC, CZECHIA

When?

31. 10. – 7. 11. 2022

Who?

There will be two representatives per each country. At least one of them should be part of the board and have the ability to make strategic decisions about the direction of the organization in terms of engaging the organization in new projects, have experience of project management or useful tools to reach out to young people to engage in Erasmus+ projects
